Dear Colleagues,

The executive committee is once again proud to present this year's program for The Maine Chapter of the American College of Surgeons annual meeting. Our exciting panel of speakers and topics will offer something for everyone, including offering CME credit counting towards Maine's opioid prescribers requirements, addressing the American Board of Surgery's changing MOC requirements as well as the conundrum of providing rural general surgery care. So please join us in Kennebunkport at the Colony Hotel for a meeting that promises to educate you, entertain you and still offers plenty of time to enjoy our iconic Maine venue. Hope to see you there!

Sincerely,
Jamie Loggins, MD, FACS
Chapter President,
Maine ACS
