

Pentegra Increases its Sales Force with Two New Regional Directors

White Plains, NY, February 24, 2017 — Pentegra Retirement Services announced that John Low and Joe Reese have joined the organization as Regional Directors for qualified retirement plan sales. Reporting to Pete Swisher, Pentegra Senior Vice President of National Sales, Low will spearhead the company's business development efforts throughout Michigan, Missouri and Southern Illinois while Reese will lead efforts in Virginia, Maryland, Delaware and Washington, DC.

Said Swisher, "We are very pleased to have John and Joe join our growing team. With extensive industry knowledge and strong track records of professional success, Joe and John will be instrumental in marketing Pentegra's qualified retirement plan and fiduciary outsourcing solutions to advisors and their clients and will further broaden our expertise and bench strength."

Low brings more than fifteen years of experience in the financial services industry to Pentegra, including product construction, plan design and administration. Prior to joining Pentegra, he held similar roles at Transamerica Retirement Services and Nationwide Financial. He received his Bachelor of Science in Business Administration from Bowling Green State University and maintains FINRA Series 7 and 63 licenses and holds Missouri Accident and Health, Life, and Variable Annuity licensing.

Reese, an accomplished financial services veteran with more than twenty years of experience in the retirement industry, brings extensive retirement industry knowledge to Pentegra, having worked in several areas of the business. Most recently, he served as Director of Institutional Retirement Consulting – Western Division for Unified Trust. Prior, he worked for Mutual of Omaha and Manulife Financial. Reese received his Bachelor of Arts in Government from St. Lawrence University. Reese holds AIF™ and QPFC designations.
